Digital Millennium Copyright Act

It is the policy of CrowdBureau and its affiliates to respect the intellectual property of others and thus to respond to effective notices of alleged infringement of copyrighted material where (i) the copyrighted material is available at, or from, a system or network controlled or operated by or for CrowdBureau, such as CrowdBureau Connect. To the extent that you feel your copyright has been violated, please provide notice to CrowdBureau in accordance with the terms below.

Notices - If you are alleging that copyrighted material may have been or is being infringed, and then you may notify CrowdBureau, pursuant to the U.S. Online Copyright Infringement Liability Limitation Act of the U.S. Digital Millennium Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §512 (c), by sending a notice to the address listed below. Such notice must include the following to be effective:

A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act for and on behalf of the owner of an exclusive copyright that is allegedly infringed;

Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site;

Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit CrowdBureau to locate the material;

Information reasonably sufficient to permit CrowdBureau to contact you including an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address, at which you may be contacted;

A statement that you have a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or any law; and
A statement that the information in the notification is accurate and, under penalty of perjury, that you are authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

Counter Notices - If material that you have posted to a system or network controlled or operated by or for CrowdBureau has been removed or disabled, you may file a counter notice pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §512 (g). To be effective, the counter notice must be a written communication sent to the address listed below that includes the following:

A physical or electronic signature of the user;

Identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled;

A statement under penalty of perjury that you have a good faith belief that the material was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification of the material to be removed or disabled; and

Your name, address, and telephone number, and a statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of Federal District Court for the judicial district of Manhattan, New York, New York, and that you will accept service of process from the person who provided notification under subsection 17 U.S.C. §512 (c)(1)(C) or an agent of such person.
